

HEALTH & SAFETY POLICY:

Aquamain (UK) Ltd. is committed to operating an effective Health and Safety Management System to ensure:

- Compliance with all relevant Health and Safety legislation, regulations and other requirements to which Aquamain subscribes.
- Identification of all hazards arising from our work activities.
- Risk assessment and risk control to provide a safe and healthy working environment and to prevent accidents and cases of work-related ill health;
- Safety of any workplace under the control of the company including the provision and maintenance of safe routes for access and egress;
- Provision of information, instruction, supervision and training for all employees so they are competent to perform their tasks safely;
- Provision and maintenance of safe plant and equipment;
- Provision and maintenance of safe working environments including first aid provision, fire prevention and control and welfare facilities;
- Provision of required personal protective clothing & equipment to employees as identified by risk assessments;
- We carry out all work on water systems hygienically and to all the required industry standards to maintain the integrity of water systems to deliver safe and wholesome drinking water
- Safe handling and use of substances;
- Management of contractors to ensure safety on our working sites;
- Continual improvements in health and safety performance (as measured by audits, accident rates, near-miss rates etc.) and also in the Company's health and safety management system;
- Consultation with our employees on matters affecting their health and safety;
- Promotion of positive health policies within the organisation;
- Regular review and revision of this policy as necessary, and,
- Monitoring of the policy effectiveness through monthly management meetings and management review.

The Directors takes full responsibility for this policy, for ensuring that it is implemented and adequate resources are provided.

Signed:

Gary McConnell
Director

Signed:

Suzanne McConnell
Director